This may be a duplicate, I wrote earlier, but don't see the post. Mary and our Brother John Michael were married after I moved to Phoenix. When I came home for a visit he introduced us, she had a cute little mini me following her around. I remember little Boo spent the day on my lap. After a while when they had a second daughter Diana, Mike called me and asked if it would be alright if he named his daughter after my daughter Dianna, that made me proud that he and Mary would ask. Later they were blessed with a third daughter Jessica, these 3 girls were their pride and joy. R.I.P Little Mary Ann Holland

I had the pleasure of meeting Ms.Mary when I cared for her lovely mother. Mary was always caring and dedicated to her family. She was a wonderful kind lady. May she rest in peace.
