“ My condolences to Carrie's family. Carrie was a kind, sweet and talented lady. She was my second cousin on my dad's side. She always tried to come to all the family reunions and she would take pictures of everyone and bring copies to each family to the next reunion. She would write poetry and had several books of poems published over the years. Rest in peace Carrie

“ My sympathy to the family. I was her homemaker for many years until her hip fx. Carrie was a kind sweet lady & loved to sing about her love for God. She loved to crochet, watch young & restless, & do crossword puzzles. I will miss her.

“ Our church group went to Christian family day at a Cardinals game. She was like a giddy little girl. She was the biggest Cards fan I know. And loved the concert afterwards. Her kindness, love of friends and people. Her love of taking pictures and writing poems always made me smile. And the sweetest lady I've ever know.
