“ Thank you for your constant love, Uncle Charlie. Our paths did not cross nearly enough, but I always knew that you and Aunt Elaine loved each other and gave so unselfishly to anyone you encountered.

Thank you for your service to our country! I work with veterans these days and I continue to be blessed by their honorable service. Not just once, but twice from you!!

Colorado will always be a special state because it makes me think of you. Seeing the beautiful snowcapped mountains from your kitchen window. So many great memories with you in Cascade, MO when the family could get together. I know that my dad loved you dearly as a brother and I'm blessed that he and mom chose you and Aunt Elaine to be my godparents.

My prayer is that all who saw your smile will pass it along as easily as you did. Rest in peace, Uncle Charlie...and give Aunt Elaine, Mom and Dad a big hug from me.
