

Agnes Louise Farrar

August 25, 1946 - February 19, 2025

Agnes Louise Farrar passed away at her home on February 19, 2025, at the age of 78. She was born in Biehle, Missouri on August 25, 1946 to Julius and Violet Hotop. She married Richard, the love of her life on September 26, 1964.

Agnes worked from the age of 16 until she was 70 at numerous jobs including, Brown Shoe Co., Moore Quality Farms egg factory, Moore Quality Foods, St. Anthony Hospital in housekeeping and the cafeteria.

No matter where she went, she made a friend and kept in touch with them in some way. She truly knew that it was more blessed to give than to receive. Her generosity knew no bounds. She was a planner and had gifts and cards ready for all the birthdays, anniversaries and special events. Aggie was a loving wife, mom, grandma, great grandma and a beautiful soul who would help anyone. Her radiant smile lit up any room she entered. She enjoyed crocheting, embroidering, and making quilts, afghans, and scarves for anyone and everyone. She also enjoyed fitting puzzles, and beating everyone at Rummy, no matter what age, she'd take you down. She loved country music and dancing the night away. She could be talked into anything, no matter how silly. She always wanted to make everyone happy. She lived life to the fullest and especially loved spending time with her family. She was the best cook; from her Thanksgiving dressing, her potato salad to her delicious fried chicken which was requested the most. She always loved looking good, her lipstick and hair had to be just right and loved all of her sparkly, dangly earrings that she would match to every outfit. She supported all of her grandkids and would go to all of their sporting and school events. She loved her Cardinals even when they weren't winning. She had St. Louis Cardinal lights, she hung in her windows during the season. If they won, they stayed lit up all night, if they lost she shut em' down. Holidays were her favorite, she kept Christmas set up in her family room all year round! Whoever would stop by she was happy to show you her little remote, that would light up her tree and village with one click! She loved talking on her phone with her brothers and sisters just about every day. She also was the fastest and best emoji posting guru on Facebook! She was an avid prayer warrior for anyone who needed it and prayed the many rosaries she collected, daily. People always asked her to pray for them, which shows you what a wonderful loving soul she was.

Agnes was preceded in death by her mother and father Violet & Julius Hotop, her husband, Richard, her grandson Charlie Long, her brother Bernard Hotop and her sister Pat Meyer.

Agnes is survived by her children, Cindy Johnson (Scott) of Arnold, Connie Gibbar (Terry) of Imperial, Cathy Robbs (JR) of Lesterville, and Carrie Long (Anthony) of House Springs; her grandchildren Kayla Brown (Travis) of Herculaneum, Corey Johnson of Imperial, TJ Gibbar (Ana) of Desoto, Katy Harper (Korey) of Ellington, Abby Maize (Aaron) of Fredericktown, Amanda Lauman (Alex) of Imperial, Joey Johnson of St. Charles, Tommy Gibbar of Imperial, and Allison Long of House Springs. Her great grandchildren, Sophia Gibbar, Bo Brown, Skye Johnson, Rylee Brown, Oliver Gibbar and Walter Maize.

She is also survived by her sister-in-law Bonnie (John) Hotop Ehlers, siblings Tom (Sharon) Hotop, Katy (Richard) Ruesler , Jim Hotop, Tess Miller and Joan Hotop.

Aggie's nurturing spirit extended beyond her immediate family, as she was a grandma to Zack (Ciera) Johnson, Fallon Heibel, Gina Bates, Maddie Bridick, and great grandma to Raelynn Johnson.

Her legacy: Put God first, always go to church, always be kind, always pray, and her famous line was "Stick with me kid, and we'll go places “ Although we are all grieving I will try and stay upbeat here. What I will miss the most about Aggie is her smile and laughter. Because we live a ways off we didn't get to visit often but when we did we shared many laughs. We got together mainly at Christmas. I remember one in particular when Richard, Aggie, their children, Don, me ,Barb, Mary, and Valle stayed all night at the farmhouse after the Christmas party. I don't know where we all slept or if we even did. And it was really cold. I had to loan Aggie my winter coat so she could go to Midnight Mass. It didn't fit at all and looked pretty funny and of course we laughed until we cried. This was typical of our get togethers, full of love and laughter. And we will always remember them! And miss them!

I went to grade school 1- 6 with Agnes. She was a wonderful friend and I was so sad when we moved. Agnes was always so kind and helpful to me as well as some of her siblings. I enjoy visiting with her at the Biehle school reunions. She was so proud of her children, grand children and greats. I will always remember her and all her kindness! Prayers and love to her family. “Connie and Terry and family, I am so very sorry to learn of your loss, mother, mother-in-law, grandma & great grandma. I know that she was a very important lady in your lives, and she will be missed so much. I am sure that God welcomed her with open arms. May she rest in peace with all of her other loves in Heaven. God bless all of you and keep close to your heart all of the wonderful memories you have of Angie.
