I think about Alex and often back when we were college roommates at SEMO. I've attached a couple of pictures from those days. Alex was a great friend and a big part of our group of friends as we studied and had fun together!

“ Many memories of Alex growing up. We both shared a love of sports, played together in the band at Valle High. He really loved his parents, and brothers and sisters growing up. I moved to Texas and lost touch with Alex for a number of years, with the exception of his wedding and his Christmas letters until recently. I know he loved his family, Amy and their children. Rest in peace my friend. Eternal rest grant unto thee.
