“ The obituary says she had 2 grandchildren but she had 4. They failed to mention my sister(sara)and myself(kaitlynn). Amazing how they can just erase us like we never existed. She was a bitter woman, with a cold heart. She died alone. That seems like karmic victory after the way she treated people in her life.

“ Ann and I worked together for a few years at Colonial and was always the most trusted and reliable of anyone I worked with. I could always count on her, even when the expected outcome was obviously less than ideal - she would always be willing to do the work. Whenever I had an opportunity, she was the FIRST person in my mind. I can honestly say I've never met anyone so kind and willing to do the right thing regardless of the benefit.

I got to know her outside of just work, and it was obvious she loved her grandsons. I very much adored her direct, no-nonsense personality. My heart is with her family. She will be missed.

Yes she loved her grandsons, but she didn't love her 2 granddaughters...my sister and myself. Guess she always failed to mention us...I was the one who babysat Jeffery when he was a newborn for years and for free might I add) but I guess she didn't see me as a granddaughter...just her little Cinderella, there to do her chores and bidding. Stop lying about Ann. She was wretched and you know it.

“ I will always remember Ann's feisty spirit and how much she loves talking about her family, especially the grandsons. I worked with Ann through Colonial. Thank you Ann for being a woman of your word and standing next to me when we needed to stand up for what was right. I will miss you!
