“ Condolences to the family, especially cousins Alice, Hazel, and Gil. For a time, Aunt Anne and I met regularly in Festus for lunch and later had several memorable visits in Frohna. I enjoyed her quick wit and intelligence and the fact that she was always trying to teach me something. Today I am remembering with a smile the way she named her chickens, especially Darrell and his brother, Darrell. So many of Aunt Anne's mannerisms reminded me of my father. As Aunt Anne always signed her cards: With affection,
