Bernie, I just now learned of the passing of your mother several years ago. I feel that it is never too late to offer my sympathy. I am, for the past over three and one-half years, a resident of Camelot Nursing and Rehab facility in Farmington, MO. You helped us so much! Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!

“ You know as we awoke to the snow, tears came to my eyes...thinking God sent snow to mirror Bernice's purity of life and spirit. Little sprigs of grass are showing through, I think, to mirror the sins that none of us can escape. Now this morning as she is buried, her spirit is totally pure before the Lord, thanks to the complete sacrifice of our Lord. May God bless you all.

“ Sidney, Bernie, and Lillian, I was so looking forward to seeing all of you. We were hoping to attend Bernice's funeral tomorrow morning, but snow is in the forecast. Visitation hours will take us after dark, and Tom doesn't care to drive after dark. It hurts me not to be there. Life moves so quickly, and as we've moved apart from each other, chances to see family are few. Please know that I loved your mom (sister). She was always so gracious, welcoming, having such a positive, sweet spirit, and grounded in the Lord. She and my dad did evangelism visits together, and my dad always spoke so highly of her. He enjoyed their time together. As you move forward, may your best memories of your mom (sister) be those that rise to the top.
