“ Many years ago there was group of us who prayed the Rosary after Mass on Wednesday's at the Shrine. Betty was an integral part of that group. One morning she asked us if we wanted to go to her house for coffee. Little did I know she was hosting a surprise baby shower for me and my sixth baby. What a wonderful surprise, what a wonderful woman. What a wonderful group of prayer warriors! I am glad to have known Betty. May she Rest In Peace, through God's Mercy. Barb Sauer

Your Mom and my Mom were always doing things together since they grew up on farms right next to each other. Mom told us all about it many times. And I will always remember when we got to visit with your family. Our deepest sympathy and prayers. Ronnie Naeger

Ronald Naeger - June 15, 2023 at 12:58 AM

Thank you so much Debbie and Ronnie for your kindness. I have always treasured my memories of your mom and dad as my godparents. I can still hear our moms' laughter as we sat under the trees in your back yard. I know they're having a wonderful time catching up :)
