“ My cousin Bouneliam was one of kind. When my family had a lao store in St. Louis (on Cherokee St. in mid 1980s). Liam was staying with us (we shared a room in the basement), He was and working with my parents. His kindness, loyalty and wittiness make him one of kind. My dad Concy has another Don Done relatives joining him in heaven. RIP my cousin. Tuy Phimphavong

“ What a blessing it has been to have had a friend like Bounliem and his wife Simmaly for over 40 years. Bounliem had a wonderful sense of humor that brought new perspectives into my life. No man has ever been more proud of his family and to know them you understood why. Farewell my dear friend. Wesley Jennings

“ Mr. Mahathath was always such a kind and gentle soul to friends of his children. I remember the first time I saw him dribbling and playing with a soccer ball. It was the first time I'd ever witnessed that much talent. Sometimes he was a man of few words, but they always carried careful thought.

“ So sorry to hear of the lose of this “Great Man”. We spent lots of time with him at that computer class. What a happy man, always. The mini maple tree we purchased from him 21 years ago for 25 cents, so it would live, has an ever more special place in my heart. Condolences from Alan and I to all the family. He will be missed and remembered by us for forever.
