“ I have witnessed the tremendous love many have for you this past month and I have become more baffled then the moment my ears heard of your death. I have relived the goosebumps that traveled from the top of my head to the bottom of my feet with disbelief and know the reality will never go away. You touched so many people Brandon and I pray you can see just how much we all love you and wish you were still here with us. The aching hearts of your family and amazing friends make the tears well up and spill in pools from my eyes knowing life will not be the same for any of us, it has forever changed. The outpouring of love for you makes me curious if I too will have the room filled as you did. One can only hope to be so loved. I think it is safe to say, and I speak for us all...every single one of us wish to hear your voice, see you smile and have another laugh with you and your silly yet loving spirit we all loved so much. You were a joy to know and will be a missing link we hope to find in the next chapter of our journey. I love and miss you.

“ Our hearts are breaking for the family of Brandon. My father Jerry thought Brandon was one of the 'coolest dudes' he had ever known. I know they are together now, laughing and scratching, collecting pull tabs, and planning their next ride. Save us a table by the window and we'll catch up with you later.

“ When I thought of you today it brought some of my most cherished memories of us as little kids at grandma & grandpas, climbing the tree and running around the yard catching fire flies. I'm grateful to have had you in my life and I miss you already cuz...life will never be the same. Rest in peace ?
