“ So sorry to hear about Carl. He was a good soul. He helped build our house 20 years ago, did some of the framing and built the deck.

“ Janet & Family,

Our deepest sympathy for the loss of Carl. What an awesome man he was & oh the stories he used to tell. He was more quiet the last few years, but his love for Janet was always present. May God guide you through this difficult time & cherish your memories of what a great life he had with you all. Much Love Pete & Diana Howe

To our Dear cousins, Michael, Dale, Kathy, Gera, and Denise,

We're so sorry to hear of the loss of Carl. The loss of a sibling is a very difficult part of life's journey. There is comfort in knowing Carl is in paradise with your parents.

Even though it's been many years since I've seen you, I carry in my heart happy memories of visiting and playing games with all of you on Uncle Johnny's and Aunt Lu's farm when we were children.

All of Carl's family are in my prayers. May all of you find peace and comfort.

Love abides with you at this time. Cynthia Perry, Debra Sankey, Kathleen Kaeshammer, Mary Rost, and Beth LaHue (Uncle Al & Aunt Joan's daughters)
