“ I worked with Carol for her 38 years at Sabreliner and she was the best stockroom worker there was. Anytime you went to the stockroom window looking for a certain part, you hoped she waited on you, because even if you weren't sure of the part number, she seemed to know what you needed. I know she will be missed. Mike and Elaine Blair

“ I remember when aunt Carol first showed me how to use the washing machine that had the rollers on it to squeeze the water out of the clothes to put them out on the line to dry. I remember her morning walks she always took and the dogs followed her it was so peaceful in the morning sitting with her out on the deck in the screen room while she would drink coffee and just chat about everything. She was always so kind and loving 😊. I remember one time when I had a hangover and my mom and dad didn't know it but my aunt Carol did so if she just winked at me gave me a glass water and told me to keep hydrated. Lol. She will truly be missed.
