“ I remember visiting church with my Mom, Mary Williams, and listening to her sing. She was very friendly and had a calming personality. She helped with the meal when my Mom died and her smile was soft and understanding.

“ As soon as I met Carole I felt accepted by her. She was so very nice and opened her home and family to the Sundhausen family. No one had to tell me she was a Christian because I seen it in her actions. Losing her is a great loss to her fantastic family, her church and community. She loved gardening and sewing. I am blessed to have her quilting books. I am most blessed by having her and her family n my life. I miss her and my heart aches for her family. They are the n my prayers.
