“ I remember family gatherings at Lake Kah Tan Dah, sitting at lakeside and trading stories with brother-in-law Charlie while he barbecued. He was an avid adventurer and no picture captures it better than this one, taken on a maiden flight of his new experimental aircraft. The plane ascended but shortly after the pic was taken, a downdraft made it disappear below the dam! We feared the worst. Then it slowly arose, circled, and Charlie returned to tell the tale! Charlie, you lived life big - I'll miss you.
