“ RIP buddy.

We met late 1969 when I got out of military and worked for the service station that serviced your Southwestern Bell truck.

Tuned your Chevelle couple of times.

Helped you move from Chester to Perryville.....raced slot cars on a track in your basement.....went to movies at Cape with our wives.

Lots of other good memories.....but as time went on we lost touch.

My condolences to family.....Charlie was a good guy he will be missed.
