“ Cheryl and I met at church. Cheryl could always make me laugh. We were both going through some challenging things in our life and our friendship made life better. We loved going out to eat and shopping together. We took some fun trips to the Lake of the Ozarks and Nashville. Cheryl always wanted to enjoy life and make the best of her situation. We enjoyed sharing news about our children and grandchildren. We shared the same faith in God and I can imagine how busy she is in heaven being with relatives and making new friends. She is free of all cancer and pain and can now be in peace. She will be greatly missed by her friends and family. Carol Sadler
