My heart and prayers go out for everyone who loved Darryl. I know how you feel I recently had loved ones die. He is in peace now and he knows what the Han purple is for. I see him now trying to figure out a way to tell us too, to no avail. There's never anything good about death except that now since we are the last generation we shall see him soon. I forgot he was gone for a second last night and started to send him sky photos, then I remembered he is with Eashoa now safe and sound.getcaughtup2018....

Darrell I cant believe your gone. Way too soon, with out warning. I got the call and got to you as fast as I could. But not fast enough to tell you good bye.

My heart hurts because your gone and we just buried Russ 9 months ago. Steph and the kids are taking this really hard, I will do what I can for them to try and take away some of the pain. But were all hurting. I love you to the moon and back. I just pray you are with dad and Russ. Will love you forever.

Dear Brother, fly high.

I can't believe you've been gone 3 years already. IT doesn't seem real. It seems like yesterday. I wish it wasn't so. We're all coping as best we can but it is hard. I wish you and Russ and dad were here. I know I'll see you again someday in heaven when we can rejoice in the presence of JESUS. I did the best I could for service at your burial. One day we will all be together. ❤️ Adena
