“ I bought Dolores and Charles house at Parker Lake in Jan. 2000 and I'm still there and loving it. Dolores and I had an instant connection and I fell in love with her house and her. We've been friends ever since. I recently visited her and she just couldn't seem to give me enough of her wonderful hugs. I love her dearly and always will. She was my very first Perryville friend and my life here won't be the same without her. God bless you Dolores and thank you for making my life in Perryville so much better.
