“ Cousin Don I shall miss you. Many happy memories with beers in hand, taking in the fun Boettcher reunions together. I still remember when you were so proud of your brand new red 1967 Camaro; I was only 5. You gave my mother, brother and I a ride, and I was on cloud nine. I thought it was so cool that you helped make payments on it by winning races down at the dragstrip. I shall miss your smile that reminds me so much of your father. Rest in peace, Don. - Cousin Nate
