“ My aunt Doris and Uncle Donnie have always had a special place in my life, so there are lots of wonderful memories I could share. My favorite photo is one of Uncle Donnie and Katie walking through a field during deer hunting season. My latest funny memory was a few years ago when Uncle Donnie caught a huge turtle while fishing at the lake of the Ozarks. But, I will always remember the first time I met my future uncle. I was about eight years old, visiting my Grandma Ruehling, and he came over to pick up my Aunt Doris for a date. I thought he was so handsome and that it was sooo romantic that they were going on a date I watched them as I hid behind the living room door. I was too shy to come out and talk to him- he was just so handsome. Aunt Doris and Uncle Donnie thought I was pretty funny. Throughout my life, my Uncle Donnie was a wonderful role model. He was funny, kind, and sweet. Uncle Donnie made me feel special and that's why he will always be special to me. Uncle Donnie, I love and miss you.
