“ My deepest sympathy to the Brewer family. What a wonderful lady. She will be missed. You may not remember when you lived over by the Youngs. We all played together often. I remember your mother well from way back then and always thought how beautiful she was and how kind.

“ Many of my memories about Elaine center around two series of events: taking care of the two of you, Bonnie and John Robert, while your Mom and Dad took the evenings off, and running over to her home across the street to get my hair cut. Elaine will always be in my memory as a gentle, caring woman, thoughtful and concerned for others. May God hold her close to Him as He welcomes Elaine into paradise. Sister Helen
