“ Janet, Tommy, in the entire Hadler family I want to express my sincere condolences in the passing of Elbert Hadler. He was a kind, reverent, humble, and hard-working man. The world has truly lost a great man. I regret that I just now heard of this, or would have tried to attend the visitation and funeral.

I first met Hadler (he preferred that we called him just Hadler) in 1972 when I came to work for Tucker truck lines in Cape Girardeau as the Director of linehaul services. He worked for me as a road driver until the company closed in 1981. Shortly, there after I was hired by Yellow Freight System to open a new terminal for them in Cape Girardeau, Missouri and Hadler was the first driver I hired to begin this new venture before we even began operation. I left the Cape area in 1995 knowing that working with him was a decision that I would never regret. He is without a doubt, One of the very best fellow workers that I had in my 29 years with Yellow.

It is a pleasure and honor to have known and to have worked with such a good man and friend. I'm sorry I wasn't able to spend time with him over these latter years. He will be missed by everyone that knew him!
