“ Patty and family, I always remember Aunt Ellein giving me money to buy squirt guns or cap guns at the picnics and Easter was always especially fun at the old farm house. She was always so welcoming and friendly. Now, she's in heaven with a perfect state of mind and body...rejoicing!Prayers for comfort being sent.The Richters

“ Patty, I have such fond memories of playing "cards" (can't remember what game anymore!) at your mom and dad's when they lived on the farm. And, of course, the evening always included good homemade food!While I can't be there in person, I will keep your family in my prayers. My sister, Bernice, will be there for sure to represent our family. May God bless and keep you!
