“ Elmo is one of 36 of Elizabeth & Lawrence Donzes first cousins, ranging in birth year from 1937 to 1967. He was smack in the middle of us cousins but rose to the top with his love of family, his jokes (some, not so much), his wonderful radio voice, his fortitude, his continuous emails to me and my sisters about the family, and his willingness to get as silly as the rest of us, and sometimes more so. I remember how well he represented all of us at Jour de Fete in 2013 as he eloquently gave our Donze history - he did us proud as he dismissed much of the pain he was enduring. When we visited Ste Gen he would be the first cousin to welcome us back and I remember one particular year sitting under the streetlight on the corner and Merchant and Main Sts, reminiscing childhood memories. We sat there for hours. I am so sorry I cannot be there with the cousins and family for his services; I well remember how Elmo represented his parents (Elmer & Betty) at our mother's (Cornie) funeral in 1989 in Maryland. We so appreciated that. Well Elmo, our chats under the streetlight and our Donze reunions will NEVER be the same again, though we will carry on as best we can in remembering and celebrating you and our loving family who have gone before you. Please go easy on the angels with those jokes, at least for awhile. love, your cousin in Delaware, jean

“ I worked for and with Bob while he published the Sun Times newspaper, and spent many long nights with him in Cape Girardeau while we waited for the paper to come off the press. He was a hard worker on the radio stations, too. He was very proud of his family and talked about Ann, Jack and Joy whenever I saw him in later years. My deepest sympathy to them and all his many friends. He was my friend, too.

“ Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Donze family. In our conversations in recent years he always talked more of his family than actual business which was a pleasure. He was a great family man and businessman. He is being sorely missed in my heart as a friend. The Lottes and Rozier Mercantile family extends its prayers and thoughts to your family.
