“ *Dear family of Evelyn, My first meeting of your beloved mother and grandmother was in the early 1970's at the state school in Cape Girardeau. We did not know that our paths would cross in Perryville years later. I was one of Ronald's bible class teachers. We were neighbors of Jim and Angela on Gray Street. Evelyn and I sat together at Macie's baptism gathering at their home. She usually had a smile on her face. Her Christian legacy lives on through you all. May your faith bring you comfort.
