“ One of the smartest people ever to work for the city. His intelligence sometimes separated him from the crowd but as you got to know him he had a very witty personality. I know he loves his kids more than anything.

“ To You Randal, Brandon, Jared, and Kaelyn. I did not meet your Father, my cousin, or any of my Father's side of our Family until we moved to Pennsylvania when I was 8 years old. Gary and I became fast Friends and have remained close since. I hoped I would get to know You All better before now. I wish You Peace. You are Strong. Know You are Loved. May GOD Bless You All, and May your Father's final Journey Home be Swift.
