

Georgia Lea Carron

September 19, 1921 - October 1, 2021

Georgia Lea Carron, 100, of Glasgow, KY, formerly of Perryville, Missouri passed away Friday, October 1, 2021, at Hospice of Southern Kentucky in Bowling Green. She was the daughter of the late William and Ida Stearns and the widow of Norman Carron whom she was married to for 50 years. He preceded her in death March 4, 1992. She was born and raised in Missouri and moved to Glasgow almost six years ago to be near her son.

Left to cherish her memory are two sons, Terry Carron and wife Phyllis of Fountain Hill, AZ and Mike Carron and wife Pam of Glasgow, KY; granddaughters, Jackie (John) Cota of Livermore, CA, Heather (John) Lucey of Bend, OR, Amy (Greg) Cardwell of Georgetown, IN, and Kelly (David) Green of Louisville; nine great grandchildren, Amanda, Shelby, John, Austin, Tyler, Hannah, Kendal, Ainsley, and Blake; one great great granddaughter who was named after her, Georgia.

Preceded in death by her parents, husband and three brothers.

A graveside service will be held at Mount Hope Cemetery in Perryville, Missouri at 1:00 pm on Thursday, October 7, 2021 with Deacon Direk Hunt officiating.

Online condolences may be shared at www.fordandyoungfuneralhome.com

Previous Events

Graveside Service

OCT 7. 1:00 PM (CT)

Mount Hope Cemetery
Perryville, MO 63775

Tribute Wall

“ Georgia Lea Carron

October 20, 2023 at 02:54 AM

“ Georgia Lea Carron

October 20, 2023 at 01:44 AM

“ Mike-Condolences on the passing of your Mother. Always remember her working at the dime store and waiting for us to return the 55 from us tearing up the countryside after we were supposed to be washing it and cleaning the laundrymat.

Pat Fenwick - October 06, 2021 at 11:38 AM