

Hansel E. Propst

July 22, 1927 - September 2, 2014

Hansel E. Propst, 87, formerly of Sedgewickville, MO died September 2, 2014 at the Frank M. Tejada Texas State Veterans Home in Floresville, TX.

He was born July 22, 1927 in Sedgewickville, MO, son of Harley and Hattie (Bollinger) Propst. He and Leona T. Laurentius were married July 30, 1960. She preceded him in death on May 10, 2014.

Hansel had worked for McDonald Douglas as a precision tool cutter and grinder. He was an US Army WW II veteran. He was a member of District 837 I.A.M. Union and American Legion Post 592 in San Antonio, TX.

Survivors include one daughter and son-in-law, Sharon and Dennis Oloteo Jr. of San Antonio, TX; one brother, Dewey (Pat) Propst of Fenton; one sister, Verla Jean Crites of Marble Hill; and two grandchildren, Nicholas and Diana Oloteo. Dear father, grandfather, brother, brother-in-law, uncle, great uncle, cousin and friend.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Albert "Ray" Propst and Edward "Burl" Propst

Visitation will be held at Young & Sons Funeral Home on Monday, September 8 from 9:00 am until time of service at 11:00 am with Rev. David Duncan officiating. Burial in St. Maurus Cemetery in Biehle, MO with military graveside provided by American Legion Post 133 and MO Delta Team.

Memorials are preferred to Alzheimer's Association or charity of choice.

Young & Sons Funeral Home, Inc. in Perryville, MO provided the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Hansel E. Propst

October 20, 2023 at 02:54 AM

“ Hansel E. Propst

October 20, 2023 at 01:44 AM

“ Dear Sharon and Family Members, My sympathies go out to all of you as you once again face a difficult time. May you find strength and peace through our Lord and Saviour. Monna Barin

September 05, 2014 at 12:00 AM