

Harlan G. Weber

September 6, 1952 - September 22, 2019

Harlan "Butch" G. Weber, 67, of Altenburg, Missouri died Sunday, September 22, 2019 at his residence.

He was born September 6, 1952 in Cape Girardeau, Missouri to Ernst and Elvera (Mueller) Weber.

Butch had worked for Perry Crating, 36 years and then East Perry Lumber for 14 years where he retired and then to Altenburg Hardwood as a part-time job until his health and battle with cancer brought his working days to an end. Butch loved life, his friends and family, pulling jokes on people, collecting toy tractors, buying lotto tickets and wearing a smile!

Loving survivors include his mother, Elvera Weber of Perryville and three siblings, Sandy Weber and friend Ron Kraus of House Springs, Betty (David) Roth and Larry (Barb) Weber all of Altenburg, MO.

He was preceded in death by his father and grandparents.

A special thank you to Crown Hospice for their kindness and compassionate care for Butch and his family. True lifesavers.

Friends may call at Ford & Young East Perry Chapel in Altenburg on Tuesday,

September 24, from 4:00 to 8:00 pm and on Wednesday, September 25 from 6:30 to 8:30 am. He will then be taken to Trinity Lutheran Church in Altenburg for funeral service at 10:00 am with the Rev. Steven Dressler officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be given to Trinity Lutheran Church or Crown Hospice.

Online condolences may be made at www.fordandyoungfuneralhome.com.

Ford & Young Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Glad I had the opportunity to visit with Butch when I was in Mo last year. May the many memories carry you through this difficult time. The promise of the resurrection and eternal life makes our losses a little easier. Think of the great reunion when he entered heaven's gates and all those family members greeted him. We know that our redeemer lives! Love to you all - Phyllis Crites Hansen
