“ What a decent man he was...My sympathy to his family with the reminder you will see him again...

“ To all of my very good friends and children of Mr. Winkler I extend my deepest sympathy. He was a good man and great neighbor. He always had a kind word and a smile when I would visit. I know Jane will miss him. Wish I could be there. Give my love to all. Our church went to Apple creek in the spring and there in the museum was a picture of your Dad and all his brothers playing baseball. He will be greatly missed.
