“ What a happy, sweet, loving, caring, Christian lady. I met Mrs. Comte since 1970 when she started buying milk and eggs from my mother, Eva Smith, and they became quickly fast friends. Mrs Comte had the most distinct Southern voice that was just music to my northern ears. She would come over for coffee and a story or 2 laugh. How wonderful these 2 women were. They remained very close friends until my mother moved away in 1979. I know they are in heaven having coffee together again. Just knowing she is not in our world makes it a colder place. May god wrap his loving arms around each and everyone of you at this sad time. God bless you all.
