“ I miss you Aunt Mae but I am not sad because you are now in Heaven and enjoying your reunion with all your family. You are meeting all your brothers and sisters you never got to know while here on earth. There is George Louie, Ilene Louisa, Amos Robert, and Albert Walter. These all died when babies and have been waiting for you to come. I know you are happy there and know Shirley, Wilma, and Norma are sitting near you and you will never be parted again. Thank you Jesus for life everlasting. Someday I will join you because of the blood of Jesus.

“ I can only imagine the happiness of grandpa George and Grandma Pheobe to have their children all together with them once again. May the blessings and comfort of the Lord be upon my cousins at this time.
