“ I was very blessed to have known Irma, as my mother's cousin (Marilyn Meyer-Kempfer). She was a fascinating woman who I much admired, particularly her ability to recollect such interesting information and nostalgic memories. Irma was always such a joy to visit with at family gatherings and I will greatly miss her.

“ I will miss my dear Aunt Irma, who was like a grandmother to us, her brother Edgars children out in California. All four of us siblings were able to go to her 100th birthday and a few years later, my husband Sam and I visited her again. What a wonderful person and amazing life she led. I will always be grateful to have known her and loved her.
