“ Jackie and I grew up together both in grade school at St. Vincent and high school at PHS. When we were kids we always had little birthday parties in Oct. and Jan. We had decorations, presents, and Jackie always brought the cake. We kept in some touch after high school. Jackie was so busy with the Chamber of Commerce and I wish I had done more to stay close to her. I thought of her often. She was a an amazing person and a wonderful friend. Please know she is in my prayers though she needs none for she is an angel. I'm sorry I am late with my condolences, but just found out Jackie had passed. Debbie Moonier (Pace) March 26, 2023

“ You have my deepest sympathy for the loss of this beautiful soul. Jackie was such a passionate individual - for her family, for her faith, and for her community. She wanted it all to be at its best and did what she could to make it all the best. She took me under her wing and guided me when she asked me to be a part of the Chamber. It was clear how much she loved the community and wanted Perryville to shine. She always spoke so highly of each of her children and grandchildren. I loved listening to stories she had to share. She put her all into everything she worked on and she is going to be so greatly missed. She's left a hole in lives and this community that will never be filled. I pray God grants peace and comfort in your time of loss.

“ Writing from Houston Texas. Jackie is my cousin. We’ve never spent much time together because of living out of state. One of the blessings Jackie gave to us was visiting our favorite Aunt Elsie Armbrecht every week whe she was in the nursing home In Perryville. Our Aunt Elsie helped raise us. So Jackie thank you. We will have a Mass said for you at our church, St. Joseph’s.

“ Dawn and family, we are so deeply sorry to hear of your mom’s passing. Reading the lovely tributes it’s no surprise how many lives she impacted. We didn’t know her many accomplishments within the community, instead we saw how truly proud she was of all of you. Her love for you all was huge- many stories were shared during her visits at the bookstore about all of your accomplishments and bright moments. Jackie’s entire face lit up every time she spoke of her family. Keeping all of you in our thoughts and prayers. Becky and Jennifer (The Book Rack)

Jackie was a super person. I admired her for her devotion to God, her family, and her community. She was an excellent role model for her grandchildren. I really appreciated the structure she enhanced in McKayla and McKenzies lifes. I am sure they will miss her deeply. I thank God this morning for letting her be a part of them.
