“ I had been a homebound teacher of high school students. The secretaries in the high school office, including Jackie, were helpful. Jackie's smile was warm. Jackie's kindness came through even when she answered my questions over the phone.

“ Jackie, Our Drury Lane sisterhood could not have ever existed without your joyous presence. So many memories that we made and summers spent with Barbies, explorations of the creek/woods, bike rides, sports, and swimming. All the while, singing...

*"Well, you get down the fiddle and you get down the bow
Kick off your shoes and you throw 'em on the floor
Dance in the kitchen 'til the morning light,
Louisiana Saturday night!"*

Love you little sister, and miss you so. Rest sweetheart.

Always smiling (that beautiful smile!), fun and a joy to be with; always our go-to at PHS for anything questions we had, and SUCH a wonderful mother to Parker and Levi.
