“ Jan was a wonderful person and neighbor for the years I lived in Perryville and taught at St. Vincent (1978-1984). She was the one who would call early in the morning to let me know that school was called off. We stayed up late one night to see a lunar eclipse, and I remember how excited she was to get up very early to watch the wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Di. Blessings for all who loved her and for all who she loved.

“ I am saddened to hear of Jan's passing. I worked with her many years ago at Perryville Elementary. She was a wonderful person who always had a smile and kind word for all. Her love of books was an inspiration to those who frequented her library over the years. Jan was loved and respected by many and gone too soon.
