God blessed her with a caring family and a blessed death in Jesus, her Savior..as He also did for my wife Lorna

I did not know Jane very well or unfortunately, for very long--but it was long enough for me to realize that she was a very special person with an amazing attitude. Her personality will certainly be missed here at the Lighthouse for the Blind in St. Louis. Well done good & faithful servant. Heavenly Father, I know you will welcome her into your Kingdom. My condolences to the family. Ken Kosciulek, LHB Industries.
