“ My big brother 💙❤️ Just reflecting back on our childhood memories . The time you set fire to Pawpaw's bullet ,the time we found the dryer barrel behind the Landry mat and took you it up the hill I got in it and you push it down and the power line we use to swing from on the hill on the way home from school I always loved and respected you. I'll never forget the best advice you gave me, you told me to do the opposite of what ever you did because you were showing me what not to do Gone but not forgotten ,I love you Scotty ❤️ tell mom ,dad ,and Barbara, Jake, Mary and the rest of the family I love and miss them all and give Nikkie a hug from me .Until we meet again R.I.P. my brother

“ I dont even know where to begin. 90% of my younger years, and teenage life have some sort of memory of you, Mary, Jake, and bill. My gram was best friends with Mary. You were always showing all of us kids, just how to be kids. Gave us alcohol, gave us cigarettes, and totally took the blame for all of us in our teenage years. Took us out in the semi with you, and most of all always made us laugh. I dont remember a single moment where you were overwhelmed, you were always laughing, joking, or had some smarty pants remark about things. Hug Mary, Gram, Jake, Lori, and my Kaulder Bear for me please ❤️

“ Jeff, you will truly be missed. You filled a void in Lisa's life. It seems to me you helped each other in so many ways. You were a Blessing. Will miss the laughs we shared. May you rest in Paradise until we meet again.
