“ I am Christi Long (nee Darrow), a retired US Marine Corps veteran of the Gulf War. Jennifer Priller was my half-sister: we shared the same father, Henry Clyde Johnson. Jennifer has another half-sister, Traci Darrow and a half-brother, Troy Johnson who are also Clyde's children from another marriage. Traci and Jennifer could be twins, they look so much alike. I met Jennifer a few times over the years and was very impressed with her gentle, hard working spirit. She had our father's easy going sense of humor and made it very clear that she loved her daughters very much, as well as her partner Terry. I never heard her say even one bad word about anyone. My nieces are sweet girls and I know their mother is now watching over them with their grandfather and grandmother. All of our love and condolences go out to Terry and her girls.
