“ John L'Hote was a co-worker of mine when he taught 7th & 8th grade Social Studies and I was the middle school counselor. John was a favorite of mine; he was an outstanding educator and he later became a high school counselor where he also excelled. John always was such a kind, caring and helpful man; he always brightened my day as he did for many, many others as well. He was always so calm and in control of any situation. If anything needed to be done and carried out perfectly, John was the person to call upon. Jo Anne, I understand that it has been over (2) years since John's passing; I am so very sorry to have learned of this rather recently. My heart goes out to you, Jennifer, Jolene, the grandchildren and all other family members. John was one whom I admired as a caring and professional teacher and as a gentleman. I miss knowing he is no longer here, but very thankful that he is at peace. W/ much sympathy, Lynne Loveless

“ My most sincere condolences go out to all of John's Family. I've known him almost as long as I can remember. I went to school with when I started in the first grade he was in the forth grade, but being older didn't change the kindness he showed me then and all the rest of his life.

To me John's kindness always radiated off of him.

One of my Sunday highlights was see him and Joanne in Church and be able to sit in hand shaking distance of both. I will miss those days for sure. I will pray for all the family to cope with their loss.

I will always have good thoughts about John one of the kindest men In my age group.

John was truly a gentleman and a scholar. I will miss him. May his soul rest in peace.

“ Mr. L'Hote was my favorite teacher!
He was my 6th grade Social Studies, homeroom teacher. Excellent educator and outstanding role model is how I would describe John L'Hote. I was fortunate to have been one of his students. May God comfort the L'Hote family as they heal from this great loss.

“ Mr. L'Hote was a very good teacher and a good man. I ran into him many times through the years. He's always called me Melissa, instead of Missy. Matter of fact, he was the only teacher to call me Melissa. Lol. His class was structured, which I liked. I learned quite a bit in his class. He will always be "Superman". (most people who had him as a teacher that is my age, will know this reference) :) Prayers and condolences to his family.

“ I remember sitting in Mr. L'Hote's 7th grade history class, which I had right after lunch and many times we were sleepy after lunch. He would stand at the front of the classroom, spread his arms out wide and say very loudly, "People, people, people, wake up!" He also kept us up to date on the American Hostage situation taking place in Iran during that time. I wonder if he kept his old red car or still drove it? Rest in Peace Mr. L'Hote!

“ Mr. L'Hote was my favorite teacher in Junior High and best counselor in High School. I always knew he believed in me. I always chuckle when I think of the first day in his class. He had just finished saying, "You can think of me as Superman," when he tripped over the corner of his desk. He just stumbled, chuckled, and went on as nothing happened. He was a great influence to me and I'm sure to many others!

“ Mr. L'Hote was my teacher in junior high. He was one of my favorites! He would always walk around the room teaching and throwing a piece of chalk into the air and catching it. Prayers to his family! He will be greatly missed.

“ Mr. L'Hote was my high school counselor. He did a great job for students but he really helped me after high school when I decided I wanted to go back to college. I came into school and he walked me through everything I needed to do. He called SEMO and got the ball rolling for me. Without his help I may have figured it out for myself but he helped me that day to get the right foot in the door and to start a future off on the right path.
I have now been working in that very high school for starting my 13th year.
He was a great guy and he will be missed!
