

Joe M . Favier

September 2, 1950 - June 10, 2023

Joseph M. Favier, age 72, was received into the arms of Christ on June 10, 2023.

Joe lived a life that he loved. He will long be remembered as a loving son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, veteran, volunteer, coach, leader and friend.

At 18 months old, Joe was adopted by the Wallace (Si) and Augusta (Gussie) Gagnepain family of Perryville. From them he learned of unconditional love, acceptance and the blessing of family. He went through life reaching out to others, accepting others, supporting, comforting and giving, knowing that the Lord had given him many blessings.

Joe was a practicing Catholic with a strong devotion to Mary.

He graduated from St. Vincent High school in 1968. Through the years he was very active in the SV Alumni Association. Upon graduating high school Joe went to trade school to become a certified electrician.

Joe served our country in the United States Army from 1970 - 1972.

Joe married his soul mate, the former Patricia Walter on May 23, 1975. They were blessed with 48 years of marriage. She survives along with Joe's pride and joy, his two children; Natalie and Ben.

As a successful entrepreneur, he loved working with his son Ben in their family wholesale distribution business. He loved spending time with his daughter Natalie. He was delighted to welcome Jon White into the family and had a special relationship with him and his three grandchildren; Jocelyn, Jordan & Jackson White.

Survivors include his wife, Pat (Watler) Favier of Perryville; daughter, Natalie (Jon) White of Chesterfield, MO; son, Ben Favier of Perryville; three grandchildren, Jocelyn White, Jordon White, Jackson White of Chesterfield, MO; brother, Father John Gagnepain, C.M. of Perryville, MO; sister, Lucy Brenner of Morrison, MO; sister-in-laws, Sue Pierce of Perryville, Frankie (Jim) Erlacker of Kansas City, MO, Pam (Denny) Cattoor of Perryville, MO, Lisa (Jim) Best of Perryville; brother-in-law, Mel (Barb) Walter of St. Albans, MO; fifteen nieces and nephews and many great nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Eugene Gagnepain; sister-in-law, Peggy Gagnepain; brother-in-law, Tony Brenner; father-in-law, Glennon "Bud" Walter; mother-in-law, Stella Walter.

With his adventurous spirit and kind heart, Joe was many things to many people. From former Little League baseball players to high school football players they will say they have lost the man who inspired them. Friends will say they have lost their leader of fishing and golf outings as well as trips to Mizzou football games. Family and extended family members will say they have lost their shepherd while God has said, Alleluia, Joe your home!

An outstanding businessman, a tough negotiator, a great golf partner, an enjoyable lunch companion and most important a man of high moral character. “ Joe was for a lack of better term my “step uncle” but the label wasn’t relevant.

During the summers as a kid , I spent a good amount of time with my step-mom Lisa and dad Jim Best. It was always a little out of sorts not being around your school friends during the summer and being away from your typical activities.

Joe made me feel like I was loved, seen and appreciated every time I saw him. When he spoke to you, you knew every single word was intentional. From golf cart rides, watching football games, raiding his candy boxes or just having a simple conversation, Joe intentionally showed you he loved you and he cared.

What I would give to smell his pipe or hear his warm voice one more time.

In our final conversation, he was lobbying for me to make more time to visit my dad. That’s just the kind of man he was; he was always looking out for someone else.

Joe gave so much more to this world than he took from it and I have 0 doubt that God has a special place for him in Heaven.

“ Good-bye cousin. While we did not see each other much after childhood, we spent many wonderful days together with our other cousins wandering the woods and fields, fishing, homemade ice cream and playing horseshoes. May you rest in peace.
