“ Pam, Sandy, and Cathy, Brad and I have memories of your parents. Your parents' smiles at church are sweet memories. The stories of the fishing trips of your father with Dr. Fairchild and Brad's father, Harold Weber, brought some laughs. The numerous insurance meetings with your father and later with your mother were always conducted with our best interests at heart. We hope that your faith in the Lord brings comfort and peace.

“ Pam, Sandy, and Cathy. The Fairchild family is greatly saddened to hear of the loss of your mother. Jeri and your father were great friends and neighbors for so many years on Schindler Rd. Our reflection bring many fond memories of fish fries, trout fishing trips, and nights watching fireworks from our back yards. We are sure your mother shares a place in heaven with Freddie and my parents. To honor your parents we are making a donation to Immanuel Lutheran Elementary School for the purchase of library books for the early reading program. God Bless you all.

“ Jeri was an amazing lady. My husband, John, and son, Jeremy, mowed her yard. God gained another angel.
