“ Kathy was my best friend growing up. We were always together. If we weren't running around in the woods with our brothers Mark and Joe, we were riding horses. I remember the day we all got stuck up in a big tree all day because Kathy was afraid to climb down and we couldn't get around her to get down. Her mom heard us all screaming and crying for help and came down there and told us to get down now or stay up there and we were getting our asses whooped once we got down too!! Shirley was mad!! Lol We didn't get down till that evening! We finally convinced Kathy that she could do it. I think Joe and Mark were just as mad as Shirley! Lol. That's one of my favorite memories of Kathy. We were glue when we were kids all up till after school then we kind of lost each other. I've always wonder if we would have stayed close if things would have been different. Love you Kathy, till we meet again❤️
