“ Bless you Kent. I have many fine memories of Boy Scouts camping on the Whitewater Creek near Yount. The Nelson Boys always had white sugar powdered donuts from IGA, while the rest of us had to fry bacon and eggs and then clean the cast iron in the creek. May you rest in Peace with the Lord.

“ So sorry for your loss. Kent was a great guy with a unique sense of humor. He was a deep thinker and I respected his desire to contemplate our purpose in life..... His appreciation of nature was reflected in his photography. He loved his family, and was very proud of all of you.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. As his former co-worker, I will miss his witty sense of humor the most. You never knew what he would say next. “ Kent was a valuable humorous and well-liked member of River Region Photography Association where I got to know him. I admired his photos of faces in nature which he called Winky-Dinks. About six years ago he exhibited some of his photos at my art gallery (Painted Wren Art Gallery) in Cape Girardeau. Kent was a good man and a good friend. Kent, please prepare a nature trail in Heaven for me. I want to sit and watch a heavenly golden sunset with you.
