“ Larry was the most caring and gentle man with a heart of gold and the gift of gab. He was such an easy man to talk with about any subject at all. When We lost my brother, Larry stepped right in and took the place of a father. I wont call him a step father as he helped raise my two nephews as a dad would do. He loved and treated them as his own. I will always be thankful to this wonderful man!! Thankyou Larry. You will be missed by many.

“ Larry was a great guy and was a good friend to many. I haven't seen him any many years. He had once played Santa for my younger sister, he would play Santa for many children. I remember him trying to teach me how to drive his truck. My condolences to his family, I am sure he will be missed.

“ I remember many times sitting down at the dinner table with Larry, Tammy, Brett, Ryan, John, Jared, and Lacey. We all knew there was going to be one of the kids there at the dinner table that was going to make someone else at the dinner table laugh or yell. Someone was going to cut up or get mad. Larry always put a stop to it if two of the younger kids were getting into it.

It's also nice thinking back on all the conversations Larry and my dad (Leo) had when dad would come and pick me up from Larry and Tammy's after us kids would get finished playing.

“ *Larry was as honorable of a man as I have ever known. He unselfishly filled the role of a father figure to my brother's sons and helped to mold them into the men they are today. I will always love him for doing what many would or could not do.
Thank you Larry!*

He was a big, strong, intelligent man who died before he should have. The world is a lesser place without him in it!

*Larry has a special place in my heart. Larry knowingly became a second dad to our late son's boys and was great at it. We were blessed to have known him. Rest in Peace, Larry!
