

Larry Lee Renaud

November 7, 1955 - January 2, 2025

Larry Lee Renaud, 69, of Richmond, Texas passed away on Thursday, January 2, 2025 at his home surrounded by family.

Larry was born on November 7, 1955 in Perryville, Missouri to the late Ottmer and Betty (Cissell) Renaud.

After graduating from Perryville High School, he moved to Houston, Texas where he worked for Ayers Maritime Company. He eventually went on to become Vice President of the company. Larry retired in 2018, wrapping up a 40+ year career in the shipping industry.

While in retirement, he traveled the country, mostly by motorcycle. He made numerous trips to Missouri to spend time with family and friends. He served in B.A.C.A. (Bikers Against Child Abuse) and acted as president of his chapter for several years.

He enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren. He was always happy when he could help others. He was an avid bowler, spending nights playing in a local league and volunteering his skills as a coaching assistant for a local high school.

He is survived by three daughters and one son: Christina (Von) of McKinney,

Texas, Elizabeth (Jae) Theobald of Houston, Texas, Kimberly (Isaac) Gonzales of Richmond, Texas, Ronnie Reyes of Richmond, Texas; 13 grandchildren: Haley, Hayden, Jonathan, Grace, Braden, Logan, Ethan, Dylan, Andrew, Emma, Aidan, Adam, and Gavin; Two great-grandchildren: Kayden and Mia, 3 Brothers Rodger (Jennifer) Renaud of Columbia, IL, Tim (Kim) Renaud of Barnhart, MO, Scott (Angela) Renaud of Orlando, Florida, 1 sister, Kathy (Rick) French of St. Mary, MO.

He was preceded in death by 1 brother, Mike Renaud and 1 sister, Laurie Renaud
