“ I was a classmate of Lee's at St. Vincent's; but I have lived in Florida most of my life.
When I heard of Lee's passing, and of his "long day's journey into night," because of Alzheimers, I knew that I wanted to pay tribute to him:

Lee was a very good person. He was always friendly to everyone, but in a gracious-and-kind way. He was never, ever arrogant or "puffed up."
Instead,
he was the friend and humanitarian, which made him a wonderful asset to our class.

I am sure he will be greatly-missed by his devoted and most extraordinary wife, Pat, and his children and grandchildren, and by his close friends.

Please accept my deepest sympathy!

“ What sad news. Pat, I know Lee had a rough end and I hope soon you and your kids/grandkids will be bolstered by the sweet memories of your lifetime with him. I always thought of him as a dear man. Please accept my condolences. I am out of town so will not be able to attend the services on Saturday.

“ Pat and family, my condolences on Lee's passing. I am grateful for the ministry Lee performed at St. Mary's of the Barrens and his personality. His facial expressions often spoke more than even his words. He was a good man and friend. I'm sure God will remember the good he has done. Peace to you all.
