“ *Lynda, Nicky, and Michelle,
I have so many memories of Leon and spending my childhood with all of you! I couldn't have grown up next to better neighbors. I tell my kids many stories of the predicaments that Leon and my Dad would get themselves into. The one that comes to mind is them pulling trees down in the field with their tractors. I also remember that Leon's dinner wasn't complete without a peanut butter sandwich. My sympathies are with you and I will keep you in my prayers.*

“ Aunt Lynda, Michelle and Nicky - my heart breaks. I am so sorry for your loss. I will never forget how Uncle Leon taught me how to ride a horse and introduced me to the horse world of "Eminence" for the first time. He loved his horses and riding so much - you couldn't help but love them too. He will forever be in my heart! Love you all!
