“ My Deepest Sympathy, Condolences to the Pitti family! This really grab my heart as Linda was my 2nd Angelmom to meet & be friends with on Facebook! She helped me in my times of grief & need! Altho I never lost a child the loss of my Momma has been unbearable at times. She was there for me & I am going to miss her deeply. She made & shared awesome graphics & posts. Please know she helped & touched millions because of her grief. The loss of John Stephen allowed her to reach a multitude & help them! So my prayers for each of you is that Jesus will give you comfort, courage, strength, faith, hope, peace and understanding of the loss of Linda! Such a remarkable lady! Her journey here was short but she heard the call of her name & climbed those stairs to Heaven. She will be waiting at Heaven's gates for each of you with Jesus & all that have gone before when you hear your name called..... Prayers, {{{Hugs}}} Tears, Love, & Healing for each of the family she left behind. She will never be forgotten.....? ”

“ My dear friend Linda. I've been struggling all day thinking about you. Tears have fallen and my heart is broken. We lost our boys less than 24 hours apart and were connected ever since. I think about all our talks and all you have endured the past five years and eight months. I know you are with John Stephen and with my STEPHIN now and that reunion must be amazing with the lord but us here left behind are gonna miss you. My prayers are with Kevin and your family and I know your hubby will miss you sitting at the other end of the couch. I don't know what happened and that hurts the most. I don't know how you left this world. My heart is shattered. If your family ever needs any thing they can call me day or night 3375636625. I'm here for them always as you and I were here for each other. I will forever remember December 14 and you. I will always remember April 14 for John Stephen. I will carry your photos and remember our talks. I know the journey was so hard. I love you my dear friend and I wish I could of made life easier for you. I wish I had that magic wand we talked about to often.
